		The shipment can arrive no more than twelve months after the importer's own arrival date.
Alcoholic drinks and tobacco products	Must be declared on C3 form or on a separate detailed listing	All alcoholic drink and tobacco products are subject to duty and tax upon importation unless they are hand-carried by the importer.	Rates of duty and tax are high (typically 10-20% duty to be added to the value and then 20% VAT on combined value) and in most cases it is cheaper to buy the same product in the UK, than to pay the original overseas purchase price plus the import duty and tax..
Unlicensed drugs, offensive weapons, indecent and obscene material featuring children, pornographic material, counterfeit and pirated goods, meat, milk and other animal products		Importation is prohibited
Firearms, explosives and ammunition, live animals (see below for pets), endangered species, certain plants and their produce and radio transmitters		Importation is restricted – contact your UK FIDI agent for details prior to shipment. Usually a licence will be required to allow these items to be imported.
