

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
CONSIGNMENT INFORMATION: All shipment must be marked on the OBL as 'Used Personal effects & Household goods' or AWB as 'Used personal effects only'. Do not declare as household goods or household effects on the AWB. Original OBL is needed if OBL is not surrendered (express released). Failure to follow the above procedures can cause serious Customs Clearance delays and result in higher import fees to the owners/shipper.
Removal goods	Shipper must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passport • Non-Immigrant or Residence Visa valid for one year. • Work Permit valid for one year, if available. Origin agent must provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two legible copies of packing inventory. • Original copy of OBL or airway bill. • Shipments must be marked on the OBL and airway bills as "Used Personal Effects" only. All shipments (except diplomatic) must be consigned to the Shipper's full name (exactly as shown in passport) Original passport and original work permit must be presented to Customs during inspection. Bond facility is not available pending issuance of work permit. Without the one-year work permit, shipment will be dutiable, only original passport is required during customs clearance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Duty free entry for used personal effects and household goods but only 1 (one) shipment by air AND 1 (one) shipment by sea only. • Household effects under 6 months in age are subject to duties. • Although the shipper may import more than one shipment, he remains subject to full import duties on the second shipment. We recommend consolidation of shipments prior to their arrival in Thailand. • Personal and household effects must be imported not earlier than one month prior to arrival and not later than six months after the arrival of the importer, but the Director General of Customs is empowered to extend the said period in such exceptional circumstances, as he deems necessary. • Shipment has to be consigned to full name of shipper c/o Removal Company's address. • Shipper does not have to be present at customs BUT his actual passport has to be presented to customs. 	Duty free entry available to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Returning Thai resident who has lived abroad for more than 12 months. Too frequent travelling back and forth can cause problems should Customs deem the owner to have not been permanently based in origin country. Each stay in Thailand must not be more than 3 months each time. Shipper has never imported goods into Thailand. Original passport (old passport might be needed), copy of a house certificate and copy of Thai ID card must be presented during the customs inspection. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Persons processing a one-year non-immigrant B (business) visa with a valid one-year work permit at the time shipment arrives at port. No other permit or retirement type "O" visa will be considered for duty free entry. All other categories are subject to high taxes. A VAT of 7% applies to all invoices issued in Thailand. Customs clearance takes three to five working days.

	Furthermore, the following restrictions must always be met for a 1 year work permit or a returning Thai – otherwise the shipment will be classified as non-exempt: 1.1 Shipment must originate from same country as owner’s last place of residence or place of work. 1.2 Shipment must arrive in Thailand not earlier than 1 month prior to owner’s arrival/return to Thailand. 1.3 Shipment must arrive in Thailand not later than 6 months after owner’s arrival/return to Thailand. 1.4 Thai customs allow only one sea and one small air shipment. 1.5 Must contain used items (not new). 1.6 Only one of each type of electrical appliance is allowed, duplicate appliances will be charged full duties.
Diplomats' removals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A set of packing lists. • Bill of Lading or Air Way Bill to be received prior to arrival of shipment. 	Diplomatic shipments are allowed duty-free into the Kingdom. For Diplomatic shipments must be consigned to their Embassy or their mission/organization with full name and full address Attn: Mr./Mrs./Ms. Or Miss in front of Shipper’s full name (exactly as shown in passport)	Documentation processing for diplomatic shipments takes approximately 14 days by the respective embassy after shipment arrives at port.
NON EXEMPT FROM DUTY High duties are placed on all goods not conforming to the section above. Particularly high duties apply to electrical goods, plasma/LCD TV, carpets and luxury goods. Note: Toys, baby items, foodstuff, alcohol, office items including files, bicycle, exercise equipment, sport equipment, musical instrument, golf set, luxury items including crystal glasses and Porcelain vases, and fax machines ARE DUTIABLE and will not consider for duty exemption. Especially sending via airfreight. Customs at the airport is very strict. They are not expecting shipper to send a large used HHG via air and intend to go through the goods more thoroughly during the inspection. We recommend sending most of the electrical goods, baby toys, and golf club via sea shipment if possible. Note: Prohibited articles include firearms, ammunition, pornographic literature, short-wave radios, and medical equipment, Buddha head, gold and silver. Note: Wine and spirits, foodstuff, toys, baby items, Buddha statue require special import licensing and should not be included in the shipment without prior consultation. Note: For all inbound shipments (except diplomatic) agent must have client’s actual passport for clearance. With all documentation in order, clearance typically takes 3-5 working days.
Wedding trousseaux		Wedding gifts will be subject to duties per the appropriate tariffs.
Inheritance		Will be subject to duties unless Thai citizen can satisfy Government residence requirement.
